

Village Comparison Document

Retirement Villages Act 1999 (Section 74)

ABN: 86 504 771 740

This form is effective from 1 February 2019

Name of village: Bellcarra Resort

Important information for the prospective resident

- The Village Comparison Document gives general information about the retirement village accommodation, facilities and services, including the general costs of moving into, living in and leaving the retirement village. This makes it easier for you to compare retirement villages. DS Date test.
- The Retirement Villages Act 1999 requires a retirement village scheme operator to:
 - provide a copy of the Village Comparison Document to a prospective resident of the retirement village within seven days of receiving a request
 - include a copy of the Village Comparison Document with any promotional material given to a person, other than through a general distribution (e.g. mail-out)
 - publish the Village Comparison Document on the village's website so that the document, or a link to it appears prominently on each page of the website that contains, or has a link to, marketing material for the village
- You can access a copy of this Village Comparison Document on the village website at <https://levande.com.au/community/bellcarra/for-sale/>
- All amounts in this document are GST-inclusive, unless stated otherwise where that is permitted by law.

Notice for prospective residents

Before you decide whether to live in a retirement village, you should:

- Seek independent legal advice about the retirement village contract – there are different types of contracts and they can be complex
- Find out the financial commitments involved – in particular, you should understand and consider ingoing costs, ongoing fees and charges (which can increase) and how much it will cost you when you leave the village permanently
- Consider any impacts to any pensions, rate subsidies and rebates you currently receive
- Consider what questions to ask the village manager before signing a contract
- Consider whether retirement village living provides the lifestyle that is right for you. Moving into a retirement village is very different to moving into a new house. It involves buying into a village with communal facilities where usually some of the costs of this lifestyle are deferred until you leave the village. These deferred costs when you leave your unit may be significant.
- Seek further information and advice to help with making a decision that is right for you. Some useful contacts are listed at the end of this document, including:
 - Queensland Retirement Village and Parks Advice Service (QRVPAS) which provides free information and legal assistance for residents and prospective residents of retirement villages. See www.caxton.org.au or phone 07 3214 6333.
 - The Queensland Law Society which can provide a list of lawyers who practice retirement village law. See www.qls.com.au or phone: 1300 367 757.

More information

- If you decide to move into a retirement village, the operator will provide you with a Prospective Costs Document for your selected unit, a residence contract and other legal documents.
- By law, you must have a copy of the Village Comparison Document, the Prospective Costs Document, the village by-laws, your residence contract and all attachments to your residence contract for at least 21 days before you and the operator enter into the residence contract. This is to give you time to read these documents carefully and seek professional advice about your legal and financial interests. You have the right to waive the 21-day period if you get legal advice from a Queensland lawyer about your contract.

The information in this Village Comparison Document is correct as at 15 September 2024 and applies to prospective residents.

Some of the information in this document may not apply to existing residence contracts.

9.2 Are there different financial options available for paying the ingoing	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No contribution and exit fee or other fees and charges under a residence contract?

If yes, specify or set out in a table how the contract options work e.g. pay a higher ingoing contribution and less or no exit fee.

There are 2 payment options available:

- Pay Upfront
- Pay Later

The key differences between the 2 payment options are set out below:

Payment option	Exit fee (refer Part 11)	Upfront Fee (refer Part 9.3)
Pay Upfront	Not applicable	20% of the purchase price or ingoing contribution
Pay Later	Maximum 30% of the purchase price or ingoing contribution over 5 years	Not applicable

The above payment options are available for both the Freehold Units and the Licence Units.

9.3 What other entry costs do residents need to pay?

Freehold Units

- Transfer or stamp duty
- Costs related to your residence contract

Note from the scheme operator: The resident is responsible for his/her own costs incurred in connection with entering into and complying with the purchase contract for the resident's unit.
- Costs related to any other contract e.g. any adjustments required under the purchase contract for the resident's unit
- Advance payment of General Services Charge
- Other costs:
 - the Upfront Fee (if you select the Pay Upfront option)
 - Queensland Titles Registry registration fees on transfer of title and the scheme operator's caveat;

Licence Units

- Transfer or stamp duty, and any other relevant duty (if you select the Pay Upfront option)
- Costs related to your residence contract

- Costs related to any other contract
- Advance payment of General Services Charge
- Other costs: The Upfront Fee (if you select the Pay Upfront option)

Part 10 - Ongoing Costs - costs while living in the retirement village

General Services Charge: Residents pay this charge for the general services supplied or made available to residents in the village, which may include management and administration, gardening and general maintenance and other services or facilities for recreation and entertainment described at 7.1.

Maintenance Reserve Fund contribution: Residents pay this charge for maintaining and repairing (but not replacing) the village's capital items e.g. communal facilities, swimming pool. This fund may or may not cover maintaining or repairing items in your unit, depending on the terms of your residence contract.

The budgets for the General Services Charges Fund and the Maintenance Reserve Fund are set each financial year and these amounts can increase each year. The amount to be held in the Maintenance Reserve Fund is determined by the operator using a quantity surveyor's report.

Note: The following ongoing costs are all stated as weekly amounts to help you compare the costs of different villages. However, the billing period for these amounts may not be weekly.

Part 14 - Exit entitlement or buyback of freehold units

An exit entitlement is the amount the operator may be required to pay the former resident under a residence contract after the right to reside is terminated and the former resident has left the unit.

14.1 How is the exit entitlement which the operator will pay the resident worked out?	Freehold Units When the resident sells the unit, the resident receives the resale price (i.e. the price paid to the resident by the purchaser of their unit). When the resident receives the resale price: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the resident must pay the scheme operator: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ if the resident has selected the Pay Later option, the exit fee (see Part 11, item 11.1); ○ 100% of the capital gain (if any); and ○ any other amounts (for example, outstanding General Services Charges) the resident is liable to pay under the residence contract or any other agreement with the scheme operator; and • the scheme operator must pay the resident: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ 100% of the capital loss (if any); and ○ if the resident has selected the Pay Upfront option, the relevant part of the Upfront Fee set out below (if applicable). Licence Units The ingoing contribution (paid to the scheme operator on entry) is repaid to the resident, less: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • if the resident has selected the Pay Later option, the exit fee (see Part 11, item 11.1); and • any other amounts (for example, outstanding General Services Charges) the resident is liable to pay under the residence contract or any other agreement with the scheme operator.

If the resident selected the Pay Upfront option, the scheme operator must also repay to the resident the relevant part of the Upfront Fee specified below (if applicable).

Upfront Fee repayment (both unit types)

If the resident selected the Pay Upfront option, the relevant part of the Upfront Fee to be repaid to the resident is:

Your length of residence	Refund calculation based on: your purchase price or ingoing contribution
1 year or less	10% of your purchase price or ingoing contribution
2 years or less, but more than 1 year	3% of your purchase price or ingoing contribution
More than 2 years	Nil

14.2 When is the exit entitlement payable?

By law, the operator must pay the exit entitlement to a former resident on or before the earliest of the following days:

Freehold Units

- ~~• the day stated in the residence contract
 - which is months after the termination of the residence contract~~
- ~~• 14 days after the settlement of the sale of the right to reside in the unit to the next resident or the operator~~
- ~~• 18 months after the termination date of the resident's right to reside under the residence contract, even if the unit has not been resold, unless the operator has been granted an extension for payment by the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal (QCAT).~~

In addition, an operator is entitled to see probate or letters of administration before paying the exit entitlement of a former resident who has died.

Note from the scheme operator: Not applicable. The resident receives the resale price from the person who purchases their unit after they leave the village, at the time the unit is re-sold.

However, if the resident has not sold their unit within 6 months, and the resident meets certain conditions, then the scheme operator may be obliged to pay the resident the amount they would be entitled to receive if their unit were to sell at that time, less the relevant deductions. In exchange for that payment, the resident will be required to transfer ownership of their unit to the scheme operator or alternatively, at the scheme operator's election, when the unit is ultimately re-sold, the resident must then direct the purchaser to make payment of the resale price to the scheme operator instead of to the resident. Please contact the scheme operator if further details are required.
