

Village Comparison Document

Retirement Villages Act 1999 (Section 74)

ABN: 86 504 771 740

This form is effective from 1 February 2019

Name of village: North Lakes Resort

Important information for the prospective resident

- The Village Comparison Document gives general information about the retirement village accommodation, facilities and services, including the general costs of moving into, living in and leaving the retirement village. This makes it easier for you to compare retirement villages.
- The Retirement Villages Act 1999 requires a retirement village scheme operator to:
 - provide a copy of the Village Comparison Document to a prospective resident of the retirement village within seven days of receiving a request
 - include a copy of the Village Comparison Document with any promotional material given to a person, other than through a general distribution (e.g. mail-out)
 - publish the Village Comparison Document on the village's website so that the document, or a link to it appears prominently on each page of the website that contains, or has a link to, marketing material for the village
- You can access a copy of this Village Comparison Document on the village website at <https://levande.com.au/community/north-lakes/for-sale/>
- All amounts in this document are GST-inclusive, unless stated otherwise where that is permitted by law.

Notice for prospective residents

Before you decide whether to live in a retirement village, you should:

- Seek independent legal advice about the retirement village contract – there are different types of contracts and they can be complex
- Find out the financial commitments involved – in particular, you should understand and consider ingoing costs, ongoing fees and charges (which can increase) and how much it will cost you when you leave the village permanently
- Consider any impacts to any pensions, rate subsidies and rebates you currently receive
- Consider what questions to ask the village manager before signing a contract
- Consider whether retirement village living provides the lifestyle that is right for you. Moving into a retirement village is very different to moving into a new house. It involves buying into a village with communal facilities where usually some of the costs of this lifestyle are deferred until you leave the village. These deferred costs when you leave your unit may be significant.
- Seek further information and advice to help with making a decision that is right for you. Some useful contacts are listed at the end of this document, including:
 - Queensland Retirement Village and Parks Advice Service (QRVPAS) which provides free information and legal assistance for residents and prospective residents of retirement villages. See www.caxton.org.au or phone 07 3214 6333.
 - The Queensland Law Society which can provide a list of lawyers who practice retirement village law. See www.qls.com.au or phone: 1300 367 757.

More information

- If you decide to move into a retirement village, the operator will provide you with a Prospective Costs Document for your selected unit, a residence contract and other legal documents.
- By law, you must have a copy of the Village Comparison Document, the Prospective Costs Document, the village by-laws, your residence contract and all attachments to your residence contract for at least 21 days before you and the operator enter into the residence contract. This is to give you time to read these documents carefully and seek professional advice about your legal and financial interests. You have the right to waive the 21-day period if you get legal advice from a Queensland lawyer about your contract.

The information in this Village Comparison Document is correct as at November 2023 and applies to prospective residents.

Some of the information in this document may not apply to existing residence contracts.

COSTS AND FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Part 9 - Ingoing contribution - entry costs to live in the village

An ingoing contribution is the amount a prospective resident must pay under a residence contract to secure a right to reside in the retirement village. The ingoing contribution is also referred to as the sale price or purchase price. It does not include ongoing charges such as rent or other recurring fees.

Note from the scheme operator: The ingoing contribution is a loan paid to the scheme operator by a resident when entering the village pursuant to a loan deed forming part of the residence contract. In this document it is also referred to as the 'Loan'.

9.3 What other entry costs do residents need to pay?

- Transfer or stamp duty
- Costs related to your residence contract
- Note from the scheme operator: The resident is responsible for his/her own costs incurred in connection with entering into and complying with the lease.
- Costs related to any other contract e.g.
- Advance payment of General Services Charge
- Other costs:
- Rent under the Lease of $1.00 per annum;
 - Queensland Titles Registry registration fees to register the lease.

Part 10 - Ongoing Costs - costs while living in the retirement village

General Services Charge: Residents pay this charge for the general services supplied or made available to residents in the village, which may include management and administration, gardening and general maintenance and other services or facilities for recreation and entertainment described at 7.1.

Maintenance Reserve Fund contribution: Residents pay this charge for maintaining and repairing (but not replacing) the village's capital items e.g. communal facilities, swimming pool. This fund may or may not cover maintaining or repairing items in your unit, depending on the terms of your residence contract.

The budgets for the General Services Charge Fund and the Maintenance Reserve Fund are set each financial year and these amounts can increase each year. The amount to be held in the Maintenance Reserve Fund is determined by the operator using a quantity surveyor's report.

Note: The following ongoing costs are all stated as weekly amounts to help you compare the costs of different villages. However, the billing period for these amounts may not be weekly.

All units pay a flat rate	$95.61	Nil

Note from the scheme operator: The village comprises a community titles scheme registered under the Body Corporate and Community Management Act 1997 (Qld). Most buildings and structures located in the village (excluding the inside of accommodation units which is owned by the scheme operator) and plant machinery and equipment used in the operation of the village form part of the village common property and/or are owned by the body corporate. Some of the other capital items used in the operation of the village are, or may be, owned by the scheme operator from time to time.

A Maintenance Reserve Fund has been established for the village under the Act, however as the Act prohibits the use of this fund for the maintenance and repair of body corporate property, the fund is maintained with a nominal or $0 balance at all times and there are no contributions residents are required to make to it as part of the residence charge.

A Body Corporate Sinking Fund operates for maintaining, repairing and replacing the body corporate property capital items. Residents are responsible only for contributing towards the maintenance and repair of body corporate property capital items. The scheme operator is obliged to make contributions to fund the replacement of body corporate property capital items – refer below for information relating to Body Corporate Sinking Fund contributions.

Units within a community title scheme only

Body Corporate fees and contributions are payable by residents in units that are within a community title scheme only. Where the resident owns the freehold unit, the body corporate fees are payable by the resident to the body corporate. For leasehold units, the body corporate fees may be passed on under the terms of the lease with the operator.

Note from the scheme operator: The below sets out only the contribution payable by residents.
